Trinity Sunday

Today is the feast of the Blessed Trinity, but for a Christian every day is a day to love and honour the Father, the Son and the Spirit. The mystery of the Trinity is incomprehensible, yet it is so simple when you live it. But do we live it? 'Don't bother proclaiming that you believe in God unless you live accordingly'. (Catherine de Hueck Doherty) Let us reflect on that for a moment. Let us confess our sins and ask the Father's forgiveness. I confess to almighty God

Masses this week: Please note Mass days and times this week for the Derriagh-Colin Pastoral Community are on the back of the Bulletin beside the Hymns.

There will be no Wednesday morning Mass in St. Colman's this week.
St. Patrick's (Communion Service this Thursday 6:30pm)

Children's Liturgy Group The Children's Liturgy has now finished for the summer and will resume again, as usual, in September. We are looking for a coordinator, as well as volunteers to lead or assist with delivering the Gospel to our primary school aged children during the 12 noon mass. If you would like to become involved, please contact the Parish office for further details.

Contacting a Priest in an Emergency

In the event of an emergency sick call, or a death within Derriagh Parish, please contact Fr. Brian at St. Luke's 90619459. He will organise an appropriate response

Do This In Memory - Corpus Christi Procession - 23 June 2019 Our Parish Corpus Christi procession will take place after 12 Noon Mass in St Colman's on Sunday 23 June 2019 followed by Benediction and the distribution of certificates and a small gift to the children who completed our Parish Do This In Memory programme. This is a very special Parish occasion and all the children who received First Eucharist this year and their parents and guardians are invited to come to this Mass to lead our procession. The children are asked to wear their First Communion clothes. Weather permitting we shall process around the church grounds and cars must therefore only be parked in the marked parking areas. If the weather is poor we shall have the procession inside the church.

The Knights of Columbanus- members are presently visiting the parishes of each pastoral community of the diocese to highlight their apostolate, encourage membership and contribute to the mission of the church in our diocese. This weekend, we welcome them to Derriaghy Parish and we look forward to their words.

The Parish Safeguarding Committee Since 2006 The Parish Safeguarding Committee (PSC) has been active in the Parish of Derriaghy. The main role of the PSC is to create a SAFE ENVIRONMENT for children, young people, vulnerable adults, volunteers and church personnel within our Parish. To this end all our volunteers and church personnel have to undergo a vetting procedure and safeguarding training appropriate to their role, which is updated on a regular basis. The Diocese of Down and Connor takes seriously all concerns, suspicions and allegations of child or vulnerable adult abuse made against any member of clergy, staff or volunteers. If you have a concern or suspicion or wish to make an allegation of abuse, there are several ways to address this. You may contact: The Police (PSNI) Social Services NSPCC The Church through the Diocesan Designated Liason Person. Contact details for all these organisations are available in Church.

How great thou art

O Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder Consider all the works they hand has made, I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder Thy power throughout the universe displayed

Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee: How great thou art. How great thou art Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee: How great thou art. How great thou art.

When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation And take me home, what joy shall fill my heart; When I shall bow in humble adoration, And there proclaim, my God, how great thou art
